

JUNIOR ROTC

LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL / WINTER 2010

JROTC Briefs O'Farrell Middle School

JROTC at Lincoln High School briefed the 8th grade students at O'Farrell Middle School on the pathway to become a better citizen. The brief highlighted the mission of JROTC, which is to motivate young people to be better citizens. Additionally, the brief highlighted character and leadership development, effective communication, working as a member of a team, improving physical fitness and strengthening positive self-motivation/esteem. The cadet briefer discussed their recently completed and successful canned food drive, which was the foundation for their annual Service Learning Project.

Lincoln's JROTC Program

- Prepares the cadets for life beyond the program
- Develops personal skills
- Teaches self-discipline and leadership skills
- Provides for mental and physical training
- Offers training on financial planning
- Is an enabler when applying for a job and/or filling out a college application

CADET AWARDS & PROMOTIONS. Great job to the cadets who worked hard at being better citizens. Cadets are promoted to higher ranks and awarded ribbons and cords.

CADET ANNUAL PICNIC. The War is on. It is a tough job, but somebody has to win this Tug-of-War contest. Count me in. I am always ready for a challenge.
