MINIMUM DAYS

The Lincoln faculty and staff are committed to improving their teaching practice by participating in professional learning sessions on select Mondays during the school year. Additionally, there will be minimum days for end of semester finals, the Senior Exhibition, and for the administration of STAR testing. Students will be released early and are encouraged to participate in extra-curricular learning activities like visiting the public library or getting an early start on homework.

Four minimum days have been set aside for FAMILY CONFERENCING. On these days, teachers are expected to make personal contact with student families by phone or in person:
